MIAMI

Can you transfer the heat from an NYC boutique hotel to South Beach? The one-year-old Gansevoort South (at the north end of Collins Avenue's babelicious oceanfront row of hotels) is the size of a megacity block, has a family-friendly pool, a DavidBartonGym+Spa and a lobby aquarium fit for Nemo. But it's the 18-plus-only Plunge rooftop pool/bar that pulls in the celebs, bromances and models. Plus, its hotel/condo private beach club is the biggest on the strip—and, in Miami, where the Fontainebleau just completed a billion-dollar (yes, that's a b) renovation, size matters. 2377 Collins Ave. —Shelley Black

À Table tout le monde

Montreal

●Attention, haute hostesses: À Table tout le monde is a new gallery/boutique serving up stylish tableware from around the world. You'll find everything you'll need for a fab feast, including ceramics from Mud Australia, cool crystalline pieces from Japan's Sugahara Glassworks and avant-minded Dutch designs from Royal VKB. 361 rue St-Paul O. ●Wondering why all those stylistas are stiletto-steppin' across the cobblestone streets of Old Montreal? They're heading to SSense's new location, a two-storey stunner filled with chic pieces courtesy of Vivienne Westwood, Alexandre Herchcovitch, Black Halo and more. 90 rue St-Paul O. —Janna Zittler

NEW YORK

●Eddy Chai and Paul Birardi, the über-cool purveyors behind Odin and Den, have finally given in to the fairer sex. In the duo's first gal-specific venture, Pas de Deux's sugary-sweet Parisian-inspired space (above) is filled with only this season's chicest items from the likes of 3.1 Phillip Lim, Alexander Wang and Vena Cava. 328 East 11th St. ●For those of you who thought the Beatrice Inn couldn't be beat, we suggest you head over to the Lower East Side's new Chloé digs. A perfect mix of hip and homey, the Euro-style lounge draws a styling crowd every night, minus the attitude at the door. At last. 81 Ludlow St. —Randi Bergman
