

Love & live in style

33

aishti magazine

Divine madness

Technicolor trends, music mania and a casino crush

This copy is not for sale

ISSN 0970-0100

► One person's garbage really is another person's treasure. Just ask Bazara Bags, which turns used juice containers, advertising banners and scraps of old textiles into trendy bags and other accessories.

Browse through the treasures at www.bazarabags.com

▲ Toronto nightlife hasn't been the same since Circa came to town. Opened this fall by the King of Clubs Peter Gatien, of New York fame, the multi-tiered venue is part nightclub, part entertainment center, part arts and cultural hub.

Visit www.circaontario.com

► Shereen de Rousseau's line of jewelry is a unique blend of pearls, stones and vintage coins, creating an edgy look that is retro yet fashion-forward.

Browse through her collections at www.shereenderousseau.com

▼ Rocky Mountaineer Vacations offers different packages of scenic train travel through the Canadian Rockies this winter. Visit the beautiful resort towns of Banff, Jasper and Louise and join in some winter fun.

Visit www.rockymountaineer.com

▼ Get an edge on other skiers at world-class resort Whistler. Kadenwood, a new ski-in/ski-out luxury real estate development at the highest buildable point on the mountain, is complete with its own gondola service.

Visit www.kadenwoodhomes.com

◀ Thoughts of an English tea party were the inspiration behind the current collection of Wendy Wong's House of Spy label. Check out the gorgeous sleeveless cobalt cardigan and to-die-for plaid jacket.

Visit www.houseofspy.com

© Shereen de Rousseau, House of Spy; Rickwood, Rocky Mountaineer